

EXHIBITION LANGLEY LIBRARY

By the grace of Allah, the first exhibition by Middlesex region was held from 1st to 5th March at Langley library. There were number of posters, which included information about Islam, tolerance, peace, equality, humanity first, informing about the jama'at working in various countries, charity work in the U.K, bus campaigns and mosques. Jama'at brochures were also displayed. Workers in the library and managers found it very interesting and there was very good response from general public.

